MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING AND ANALYTICS (B.S.)

The Bachelor of Science in Management Accounting and Analytics is fully online and a STEM-designated degree. The curriculum is the same as the Bachelor of Science in Accounting, except the major courses have been modified to introduce courses that will prepare students for the Certified Management Accountant exam (CMA). The accounting track will consist of two introductory courses (financial and managerial accounting) and seven upper-level courses with coursework in cost accounting, auditing, ethics, data analytics, big data, financial statement analysis, financial management and corporate finance.
